

COUNT DOWN to

SCIENCE alive

Main | 574.282.4646

30 Minute Science Experiments

4:00 p.m., January 21–February 1
3rd Floor Lobby

Polar Projects for ages 5–10
Explore the science of ice with a variety of interactive experiments.

4:30 p.m., Tuesday, January 22
Storytime Room

Owl Pellet Lab for ages 7–14
Discover what owls eat and how they digest their food. Dissect a real owl pellet for a fun and memorable way to learn about the eating habits of birds of prey. Registration required.

4:00 p.m., Monday, January 28
Storytime Room

Centre Township | 574.251.3700

Busy Builders for all ages
Learn about simple machines by building your own in a fun hands-on engineering experiment.

4:00 p.m., Monday, January 21

Francis | 574.282.4641

Breakerspace for ages 7+
What's inside your computer keyboard, alarm clock, or toy? Find out by taking apart an electronic gadget or appliance to discover its inner workings. Tools, protective eyewear, and gadgets to disassemble will be provided. Registration required.

4:00 p.m., Monday, January 28

German Township | 574.271.5144

Peace Bees Buzz for all ages
Find out what all the buzz is about. The team at Peace Bees will teach us why bees are so important for the environment.

6:00 p.m., Thursday, January 31

Lakeville | 574.784.3446

Fossilize It! for ages 4+
Discover how fossils are made and create your very own fossil to take home.

2:00 p.m., Saturday, January 26

LaSalle | 574.282.4633

The Role of the Three R's: Reduce, Reuse & Recycle for all ages

Find out what you can do for our earth. John Schwelnus, from the St. Joseph County Soil & Water Conservation District, will discuss the role of the three R's: reduce, reuse, and recycle.

4:00 p.m., Friday, January 25

North Liberty | 574.656.3664

Build and Blend Science for all ages
Become a robot engineer or a crazy chemist during this apprenticeship with our resident Mad Scientist. Run an experiment, build a machine, and learn how science makes your life fun.

4:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 30

River Park | 574.282.4635

Peace Bees Buzz for all ages
Learn about the importance of honeybees and beekeeping from the team of Peace Bees. See a busy hive at work and try on a beekeeper's jacket and veil.

6:00 p.m., Tuesday, January 29

Tutt | 574.282.4637

Flying Fish for ages 8–12
Have you ever seen a fish fly? Create your own flying fish from a motor and household objects with scientists from the Joint Institute for Nuclear Astrophysics (JINA-CEE). Children will learn problem solving skills while building their own toy to take home! Registration required.

4:30 p.m., Thursday, January 24

Western | 574.282.4639

Investigate Insects for ages 5+
Get up close with insects from the Curious Kids Museum. Learn about the important role insects play in our ecosystem with hands-on activities, crafts, and games.

4:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 23

304 SOUTH MAIN STREET | SOUTH BEND, IN 46601

SJCPL.ORG

